In addition to heading the band program, he serves the School of music as Professor and Chairman of the Department of Conducting. He teaches courses in conducting, band arranging, and band techniques. He conducts university musical productions, including the famed "WAA-MU Show." Under John Paynter's direction, the Northwestern University "Wildcat" Marching Band, Symphonic Wind Ensemble, Concert and Symphonic Bands all rank with the finest of their kind.

Awards from such distinguished societies as Pi Kappa Lambda, Phi Eta Sigma, Tri-M Modern Music Masters, Phi Beta Mu, Kappa Kappa Psi, Illinois Music Educators, John Philip Sousa Foundation Star of the order, the National band Association, the School Musician, the Instrumentalist and the National Association of Music Clubs have honored Paynter's extensive contributions to music. In August, 1987 he was chosen as one of the inaugural recipients of the Northwestern University Alumni Association Excellence in Teaching Award.

One of the leading band conductors in America, Paynter has gained the respect of musicians everywhere as evidenced by his high standing in the organizations he serves: World Association for Symphonic Bands and Ensembles (Past President), Mid-West International Band and Orchestra Clinic (President), American Bandmasters Association (Past President), National Band Association (co-founder, Past President). Music Educators National Conference and Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia (Life member). In 1982, the Northshore Concert Band celebrated its Silver Anniversary and honored Paynter for his 25 years service as conductor and music director.

Paynter was born and reared in Mineral Point, Wisconsin where he received his early training in music. He entered the School of Music at Northwestern University in 1946 and earned BM and MM degrees in theory and composition in 1950 and 1951, serving as Acting Director of Bands in 1950-1951 while working toward his Masters Degree. At age 23, he was appointed to the full-time faculty (1951), and became Director of Marching Band, Assistant Director of Bands, and Instructor of Theory. Two years later, he succeeded Glenn Cliffe Bainum as Director of Bands becoming the second person ever to hold this post in Northwestern University history.

Paynter is the former editor of the "New Music" column of the Instrumentalist music magazine. He is also an active composer and arranger, with more than 400 works to his credit. Invitations to lecture and conduct have taken him to 47 of the 50 states, and internationally to Canada, Mexico, Europe, Israel, Japan and South Africa.
